FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Village of Malmo is “Swinging” after $5,000 Grant

Kids and adults alike in Malmo, Nebraska are soaring high after the installation of new adaptive swings at their park.

Last December, the Village of Malmo was awarded a $5,000 grant from Northeast Nebraska Telephone Company (NNTC) and The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) to install an Expression Swing™ and a Double Bay Single Post Swing from GameTime® for the park.

Malmo’s Planning and Zoning Board Member, Jennifer Chvatal submitted the application last summer and is extremely pleased with the grant and the new equipment in Malmo’s park.

“The greatest accomplishment is watching the children swing on the swings and the smiles on their faces. This is what the whole project was meant for. Mission accomplished by all those involved,” Chvatal said.

“We were proud to present this grant money to Malmo. It shows growth in the communities NNTC serves and we’re happy to be a part in making this happen,” said NNTC GM Pat McElroy.

NNTC is now accepting applications for the 2022 FRS Grant Program until August 17th. If you’d like to learn more, please visit their website at www.nntc.net/community

About NNTC:

Northeast Nebraska Telephone Company is a telephone, internet and television service provider headquartered in Jackson, NE. NNTC serves 30 communities throughout 24 counties in northeast Nebraska. Founded in 1955, NNTC is one of Nebraska’s first telephone cooperatives providing fiber service to 100% of its customers.

About FRS:

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS), the philanthropic arm of NTCA–The Rural Broadband Association and its members, seeks to sustain and enhance the quality of life in rural America by advancing an understanding of rural issues. Through scholarships, grants, and a variety of educational programs, FRS focuses on educating rural youth, encouraging community development and introducing policymakers to challenges unique to rural communities.
